

Aging in Community Timber Cove and Gualala Ranches

The Timber Cove and Ranches residents are a group of people who are:

- self-selected
- independent
- inter-dependent - ready to help a neighbor or visitor
- community oriented volunteers and organizers

As we age, we find ourselves in need of more assistance from others.

Aging In Community:

Serving Timber Cove and Fort Ross Fire Department Areas

Began meeting monthly, since March 2016, on Sundays, at Fort Ross School. We welcome everyone.

Mission:

The Aging in Community's mission is to enhance the quality of life for our aging community living in the Timber Cove, Seaview, and Cazadero regions. We help connect community members with specific needs to local volunteers and service providers. We also conduct monthly meetings and educational presentations at Fort Ross School. Through these services we promote and encourage both independence and interdependence within our community.

Website: agingincommunity95421.net

AIC Email List (70 + subscribers) - AIC Meeting Announcements and Minutes.

Meeting announcements are also posted on the Coastal Hills Community Project Email Bulletin.

Contacts:

Nancy Feehan	nancyfeehan@gmail.com
Michael Hallet	michael@countryarchitect.com
Mary Pat Jacobs	entwalk@mcn.org
Carolyne Singer	csinger@mcn.org